Goals

by Donna Nix - GMTD Secretariat Palanca Couple

We all have some type of goal we want to reach in life. One of my personal goals in life is to be the same person no matter where I am or who I am with and to show the Love and Grace God has given me. Your goals in life can change because this has not always been my goal. In the past, even though I went to church faithfully; some people would have never known this by some of my actions. At work or with my friends I wasn't the same person that I was at church. I didn't like the thought of these worlds running into each other. God has many tools available for us to reach our Goals; such as Tres Dias. While on my weekend I like most of you had never felt so much Love. The many people that served on my weekend was overflowing with love and kindness just for me. I did not know any of these people and I thought how could they be so kind and loving and not even know me?

Galatians 5:22-23 But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness. Gentleness and self-control against such things there are no law.

After returning to work a weekend; I then realized what a blessing it was to serve and share God's Love with others. I was overwhelmed by the blessing I received by blessing others. After going back and serving more weekends; I never get tired of showing kindness and love to the women on the mountain whether it be a candidate or someone that is serving alongside me. When returning home after a weekend; this love and kindness is something that should not be left on the mountain. Many times, this is what happens. As Christians, we are to show love and kindness to our families, friends, co-workers and yes even strangers. We are to become leaders in our community, our church, our work place and be an example for Christ.

These are some questions that we might ask ourselves to see if we are setting an example for Christ?

At work:

When speaking with a customer or someone in the office; am I being Christ like?

Do my co-workers know of my love for Jesus?

Do my co-workers know that they can ask me to pray for them?

Am I being a Christian leader?

At Church:

Am I using the talents God gave me or do I sit by and watch others use theirs?

When serving; do I greet everyone with a smile?

Do I show love and kindness to the visitors as well as the people that attend church there each week?

Am I being a leader in my church?

With Friends:

Do I show them love and kindness?

Am I spending my time with people that might have others question whether I truly live for God?

Do we act like Christians when we are with our friends?

Do you pray together and share each other's burdens?

Strangers:

When going out to eat; can my server tell by my actions that I am a Christian?

Am I kind and considerate when out in public?

At Home:

Wives; do we respect our husbands as the leader of our home?

Husbands: do you show love and respect for your wife?

Do we as parents set Christians examples for our children?

Do we pray together as a family?

1 Timothy 3:4 (The Husband) He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him; and he must do so in a manner worthy of full respect.

My answers to these questions:

My co-workers know I am a Christian and that they can come to me with prayer requests. My friends are Christians. We pray together and we do not do anything that would make anyone have to second guess whether or not we are Christians. I try to show love and kindness to my friends and strangers. At church, I use the talent that God has given me and serve with a smile or kind words. I respect Glen as the leader of our home and our children know our hearts and our love for God.

I am so far from being perfect and I am so thankful for God's Grace because I fall short each day; but I strive to reach my goal daily. When waking up each morning; I ask God to guide me throughout my day. Our lives as Christians are not always going to be perfect but let's choose to be an example for Christ.

As Christians, we need to remember; sometimes things that seem innocent or harmless may not be that at all. As Christian Leaders, we are set to a higher standard. We need to hold each other accountable without breaking one's spirit. Let's share that Love and Kindness with others in our daily lives that we share on the mountain.

What are your Goals in life?

GMTD #77 - MEN'S

MAY 18-21, 2017 - RONNIE CROCKER, RECTOR

"If my people who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, & pray, & seek my face, & turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven, & I will forgive their sin, & I will heal their land." 2 Chronicles 7:14

Wow, where do you start. What a journey! Thanks to all of you and a special thanks to my wife. Greatest team ever - 76 great men.

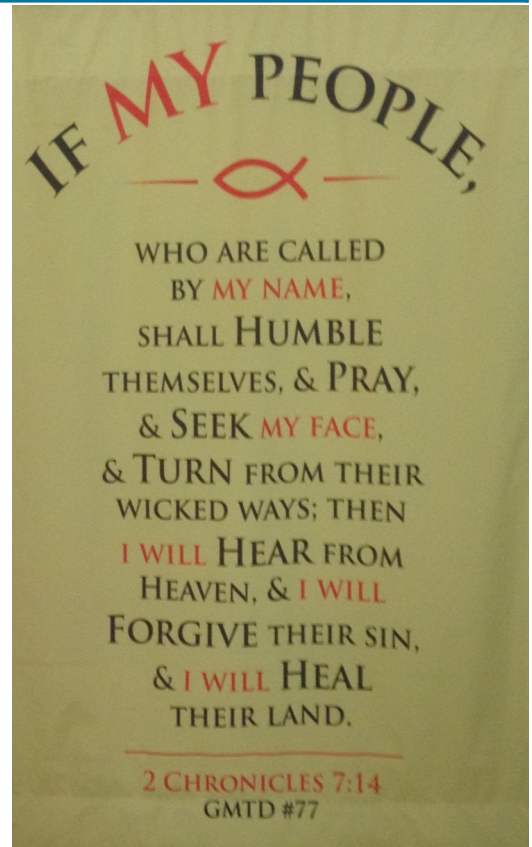

Had a few rough spots in the journey. Had very few drops. Team was unbelievable. The team treated me like a king. Our week-end verse was about restoration.

On Friday morning before breakfast the men were at the foot of the cross making restoration with God. There were 4 souls saved, 17 rededicated their lives to God, 2 gave up smoking and 2 marriages reconciled. Many good things happened.

We had 3 smooth days. There were no issues that I was aware of. The time table worked great. Our spiritual directors did a wonderful job. Many good things have continued to happen since the weekend ended. We are still working together with the candidates and team members daily praying together and staying humble before God and God is still healing our land.

VIDA NUEVA

Vida Nueva is a weekend retreat for young men and women ages 15-20. Vida Nueva is Spanish for "New Life" and like the Tres Dias, VN weekends are intended as an encounter with Jesus Christ. The weekends are similar to the structure of a Tres Dias weekend with certain changes to make it more relevant for teens. VN weekends begin on Friday evening and end on Sunday evening. The cost to sponsor someone on a VN weekend is $80. If you have a teenager who you would like to sponsor, you can download an application at the web-site www.gmvn.net. A group of teens who have made a Vida Nueva weekend recently put together a video to tell what VN has meant to them. The video can be found at www.youtube.com/watch?v=8DNV99f2Hko. Georgia Mountains VN currently holds two sets of weekends a year, one in the spring and one in the fall. The next set of weekends are November 2-5, 2017 for the Young Women and November 9-12, 2016 for the Young Men.
