Meditation ~ “Eye Hath Not Seen Nor Ear Heard” ~1 Corinthians 2:6-10

A few months ago we started working on what my wife calls our “Chicken Mansion”. Our previous chicken coop was nearing the end of its life and was a little crowded for the number of chickens we had. This new one has 5 laying boxes instead of 2, it has 3 roosting poles instead of 1, why it even has 2 little windows in it. We would talk to the chickens sometimes letting them know just how good they were going to have it, when it was done. I’m quite sure they understood me....

Yet, all but one never got to see that new home. A stray dog came through and slaughtered 9 out of 10 chickens. Not a good day at the Purcell home. If I see that dog come through my yard again, it’ll not be a good day for him either, more like his last day.

Honestly it took me by surprise. We’ve had chickens for years and never had this happen. Unfortunately, the fence was good enough to keep chickens in, but not keep the predators out.

I paused a little on the building, why I only had 1 chicken left. She had all the room she needed. But I eventually picked back up and have pretty much completed it. We also found some more chickens and brought them home. Their new home is much better than the old place they lived at.

v9, 10 <sup>9</sup> But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.<sup>10</sup> But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

Quoted from Is 64:4 – difference “for him that waiteth for him”. By Paul’s day, Christ had come. Isaiah’s day, they were crying out for God to deliver them from their captivity. He did answer their prayers after 70 years of captivity. Paul applied this principle to the church. God’s plans for His own are so wonderful that our minds cannot begin to conceive of them or comprehend them! – W. Wiersbie

We can look at the news and society, and get pretty depressed or anxious. Remember, our future is secure in Jesus Christ no matter what our circumstances may be. I think about salvation and my mind just goes wild. I can’t fully comprehend it or understand it. Why would He do that for me?

Romans 5:8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. – My favorite verse and my weekend verse.

Today – I still have a hard time with it. I know me. I know how wretched I can be. (continued...)

Back to my Chickens:

I knew their old house was in need of replacing and it wasn't big enough. The floor was about to fall through, it just needed to be replaced. There really was nothing good left in it. Yet the chickens didn't really care. It would keep them out of the rain and protect them to a certain extent. It was what they were used to. The new house was being built right in front of the old one. They could see it, but probably didn't comprehend it. God, in His wisdom, before time, knew our house would need replacing. There was nothing good in us. The Bible says we all have sinned and come short of His glory. Our best is like filthy rags to him. Yet, our filthy rags are what we get used to, worldly wisdom, not being able to see what God has right in front of us. Just like in Noah's day – they could see the boat... In Jesus's day, the Son of God was right in front of them...

Back to the Chickens:

While the house was being built, remember some died and never made it to the mansion. In this case, it was the builders fault, not the chickens. Yet, Jesus has gone to prepare a place for us – that love Him, as Paul says, we cannot comprehend. But the enemy roars about like a lion seeking who he can devour. Yes, as believers he seeks to destroy our testimony. I wouldn't put it past him to seek to devour someone that's so close to accepting Jesus, just so that can't go to heaven.

One out of 10 of my chickens got to go into the new house. The rest didn't. Of the people you see this week, how many will go to heaven? Only God knows the answer to that, but we do have the message to point them in the right direction

Back to the Chickens:

I bought 10 more chickens to add with the one that I had left. Now they weren't living in a really bad place, but it was nothing like the "Mansion". It was all they knew and they thought they had it good. Now, it is so much better. I brought new life for the chickens. They were not even allowed into the sunlight. Jesus's death on that cross, brought new life for everyone that will believe and follow Him. As told by Peter in 1 Peter 1:18-21 We were bought with a price, the blood of Jesus. All part of the plan that we may never fully understand.

Our eyes, ears and heart may never fully understand what Jesus has done for us and what He is doing now for us, but rest assured in this – IT'S AMAZING and IT'S GOING TO BE AMAZING. His plan is more than just salvation, ticket punched miss hell. We are a part of the plan to lead someone else to Jesus. Be faithful in doing so. Don't be like the dead chickens and miss the mansion being built...

The Prodigal Son ~ Luke 15:11-32

Of course it started out a little hard to get a team together during the pandemic but God knew who needed to be on the mountain to do the Lord's work. We had an awesome weekend! A lot of lives were changed and chains were broken. I went up Thursday afternoon to the camp and spoke to God and told him, "Ok God I got the team of men here, now it is my time to step out of your way and let you do your thing." Saturday afternoon during lunchtime, I think the whole group got it! We had a skit performed by the kitchen with their cardboard testimonies that then developed into praise and worship during lunch and the Holy Spirit was moving heavy from there on out.

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." ~ Psalm 23

DeColores!

After nearly 2 years of waiting, GMTD 87 finally happened!!!

I have to say that I have never experienced a weekend like this one. My prayer was that everyone, team and candidates have a blessed weekend. God did not disappoint us in any way! The team was eager to serve God and the candidates were hungry for God! It was the perfect merge on the path towards green pastures! God touched us all in many different ways and met all of our needs. We were healed, delivered, and prepared to move forward to further His kingdom.

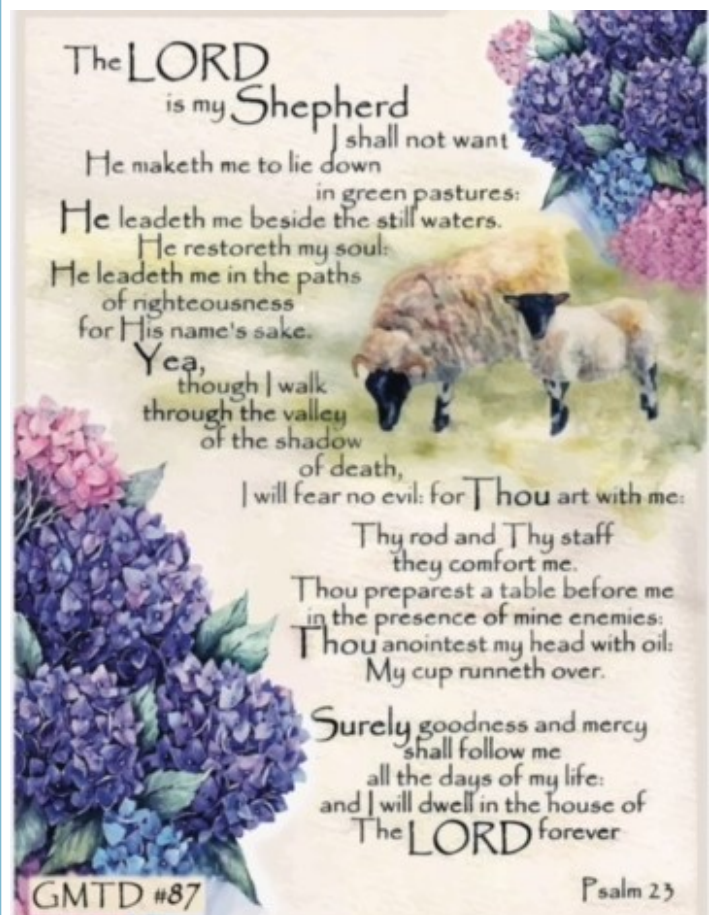

I believe I can say for each lady and our 3 gentlemen that the weekend will be red letter dates in our hearts! Psalm 23 will always have new meaning for us all!

I am thankful for all the prayer, palanca and serenaders! Thank you sponsors, you listened to the Holy Spirit and reached out to your candidates, now pescadores! It was a honor to love on your ladies for the weekend.

Oh! One last time for my girls....Ladies!!!!

Secretariat Spotlight: Spiritual Director

My name is Sam Snider and I have had the joy of serving as the Spiritual Director for GMTD the past 2 and a half years. My wife Karla and I went through GMTD 53. We have two sons, Joshua and David. They are both married to wonderful Christian women. We are in love with our grands Luke, Bonnie, William and Yates.

My role as spiritual director allows me to work closely with each rector in scheduling and training their spiritual director team for their weekends. Most of our spiritual directors are very experienced and have helped to train me. All of our spiritual directors and their wives love the Lord and serve with joy. It is amazing to watch as God puts a weekend team together. The gifts and talents of these men along with their wives are so suited to serve the pescadores and team members. They have true love for God and for people.

My role in the secretariat is to help assure the qualifications of team members. I am a part of the check and balance. I am involved in monthly meetings as well as training sessions for each weekend.

I am presently in my 36th year as a teacher. I taught 30 years as a PE teacher and now I teach science. I am presently pastor of the Mountaintown Baptist Church in Ellijay Georgia. I am only teaching part time this year and I am looking forward to the direction God leads Karla and I in the months to come. Being a pastor has been very encouraging. And being a part of GMTD has had a huge impact on my life. From the weekend I went through to having the opportunity to serve, we have been blessed. De Colores, Sam Snider

Georgia Mountains Vida Nueva

Vida Nueva is a weekend retreat for young men and women ages 15-20. Vida Nueva is Spanish for "New Life" and like the Tres Dias, VN weekends are intended as an encounter with Jesus Christ. The weekends are similar to the structure of a Tres Dias weekend with certain changes to make it more relevant for teens. VN weekends begin on Friday evening and end on Sunday evening. The cost to sponsor someone on a VN weekend is $100 and is $100 for team members. If you have a teenager who you would like to sponsor, you can download an application at the web-site www.gmvm.net. A group of teens who have made a Vida Nueva weekend recently put together a video to tell what VN has meant to them. The video can be found at www.youtube.com/watch?v=8DNNV99f2Hko. Georgia Mountains VN currently holds two sets of weekends a year, one in the spring and one in the fall. The next set of weekends are September 16-18, 2022 for the Young Women and September 23-25, 2022 for the Young Men.
